

Brooks Building, Manchester Metropolitan University

(53 Bonsall Street, Manchester, M15 6GX)

Wednesday, September 19th 2018

1300 – 1400      AEA Annual General Meeting (room BR 2.02)

1400 – 1515      Workshop: hosted by Dr Val Bissland

“Memory in Later Life and How to Make the Most of It.”

The Workshop will cover some of the activities and ways older adults can strengthen short-term, episodic and long-term memories.

Open to all free of charge (room BR LT2)

1530 – 1645      Annual Frank Glendenning Memorial Lecture

Paul McGarry, Strategic Lead, Greater Manchester Ageing Hub

“Developing the Age-friendly Greater Manchester programme to support culture and learning in later life.”

The recently established Greater Manchester Ageing Hub is the first partnership of its type in the United Kingdom. It is co-ordinating programmes of activity for the benefit of older people around economy and work; age-friendly places; healthy ageing; housing, planning and transport; culture and learning; and communications. Paul McGarry will refer particularly in this talk to culture and learning.

Open to all free of charge (room BR 1.64)

[Directions: The Brooks Building is part of Birley campus, in Hulme area of Manchester, on Bonsall Street, just off Stretford Road (a short distance from the MMU All Saints site). The closest railway station is Manchester Oxford Road, 0.9 miles away; Manchester Piccadilly station is 1.5 miles. From Piccadilly Gardens, the number 86 and 141 buses run to the Birley site for the Brooks Building]