

JOINT CONFERENCE
LEARNING, AGEING & WELL-BEING

Thursday 21 July 2011: 10.00 am - 4.00 pm

Birmingham Medical Institute
36 Harborne Rd, Birmingham B15 3AF

PROGRAMME

10.00 am -10.30 am	Arrival, registration & coffee
10.30 am - 10.40 am	Welcome (Bernie Keenan, Co-Chair IAH & Jo Walker, Chair AEA)
10.40 am - 11.30 am	Keynote address: Rethinking Active Ageing for the 21st Century: Social and Educational Responses Professor Chris Phillipson, Professor of Applied Social Studies and Gerontology, Keele University
11.35 am -12.15 pm	Older people gaining healthcare information from the internet Sue Lillyman, University of Worcester
12.20 pm -1.00 pm	Funny things happen at the Grange: introducing comedy activities in day services to older people with dementia through the making of a 'Mockumentary' about a visit by HM the Queen Trish Hafford-Letchfield, Middlesex University & George Baddeley, Silver Comedy
1 pm - 2 pm	Buffet lunch and presentation of the International Journal of Education & Ageing
2 pm - 2.45 pm	Frank Glendenning Memorial Lecture - Working and Learning Together: the value of collaboration. Lesley Hart, MBE, formerly Director of the Centre for Lifelong Learning, University of Strathclyde and founder of the Senior Studies Institute.
2.50 pm – 3.30 pm	Miss Threadgold. A short feature film developed from a play written by two students in the speaker's over-50s drama class and made into an intergenerational project supported by young volunteers. Carol Allen, AEA
3.35 pm - 3.50pm	Summing up: what have we learnt?
3.50 pm - 4 pm	Afternoon tea
4 pm - 5 pm	AEA AGM Everyone welcome!

The Association for Education & Ageing

INSTITUTE OF IAH
AGEING & HEALTH
West Midlands