

Dr Caroline Holland

Dr Caroline Holland is a Senior Research Fellow in the Faculty of Wellbeing, Education & Language Studies in The Open University. She is a committee member of the Ransackers Association and a co-organiser of Conversation into Action. Her research interests are in aspects of age and ageing, including how and where people live as they grow older; the use of technologies; and life-long learning.