

Jane Watts (PhD. M Ed. PGCE. BA)

Self-employed: Research, development and project support in the lifelong learning sector with expertise in community learning and in ageing.

Facilitator of experiential learning (action learning/open space). Evaluation with a particular interests in European projects with a lifelong learning, equalities and inclusion focus.

Jane was formerly a NIACE Programme Manager, leading NIACE's work on older learners; projects included the Mid-Life Career Review project supported by the Department for Business, Innovation and Skills and the National Older Learners' Group and represents NIACE on the AEA committee.