

AEA's Aims

Working for older learners, making their interests known, lobbying and campaigning on their behalf

Encouraging older people to challenge ageism whenever they encounter it in their everyday lives and communities

Highlighting trends in society which affect older people's freedom to learn and to lead fulfilling and useful lives

Encouraging accessible research into learning and older people and making its results known

Connecting with organisations and individuals with similar aims across the world

Organising talks, seminars, workshops and conferences on learning and later life throughout the UK

Sharing and disseminating good practice in a members' digest and an international journal

Are you -

- an older learner?
- a teacher of older learners?
- working with older people?
- a researcher into learning and ageing?
- interested in the well-being of older people?
- a supporter of older people's right to learn?
- a supporter of older people's right to learn?
- with ideas to share on learning in later life?

Then join the Association for Education and Ageing NOW.

Hon. Chair: Professor Emer. Keith Percy, kozmapercy@gmail.com

Hon. Treasurer: Dr Carol Dickson Fisher
cdicksonfisher@aol.com

Follow AEA on:

Facebook www.facebook.com/EducationandAgeing ;

Twitter @AssocEduAgeing;

Website:

www.associationforeducationandageing.org

The AEA is an educational charity, registered in the UK (No. 1050439).

International Journal of Education and Ageing

3 issues per year

The journal brings together the best of international research, scholarship and practice on education, learning and ageing in a critical and accessible manner. Special preferential rates for AEA Members.

Annual Journal Subscription:

Individual - £52: Corporate - £99

Combined AEA membership fee and Annual Journal subscription

Waged - £85: Unwaged - £60

Corporate: £144

Further details and subscribe online at <http://www.associationforeducationandageing.org/international-journal-of-education-and-ageing.html>

Join AEA now

Membership Benefits

- Free copy 2/3 times per year of AEA's "Digest" of news, views and reviews on learning in later life
- Discount on subscriptions to the "International Journal of Education and Ageing"
- Free or discounted attendance at all AEA workshops, day conferences and international conferences
- Opportunity to share in and support AEA's campaigning and lobbying activities
- Free attendance at the AEA Annual Conference and at annual Glendenning memorial lecture

Current annual membership rates:

Individual - £40 (Waged)/£21 (Unwaged)

Corporate rate for organisations: £99

Join online at www.associationforeducationandageing.org/join-aea.html

Or send a cheque payable to "The Association for Education and Ageing" with your name, postal address and email to:
Dr Keith Percy,
21 Lune Drive,
Morecambe LA3 3RZ

