

Improving the learning experience for older learners: seminar and workshop

Date: 25 September 2017, 13.30 – 15.00

Venue: Carers UK, 20 Great Dover Street, London SE1 4LX.
(2 minutes' walk from Borough u/ground station; walking distance from London Bridge)

Entrance fee: Free to AEA members; £7.50 to non-members on the door (includes tea/coffee)

Chair: Dr Anne Jameson, Reader Emerita, Birkbeck College

The seminar and workshop will examine research into educational motivations of older people and discuss why and in what ways older people learn. It will consider learning provision for older people. Participants will be encouraged to share their own experiences of learning and to identify what constitutes good practice. The aims are to clarify the wider implications for improving older people's learning and also for future AEA activities and concerns.

Please book your place by 20th September here:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/improving-the-learning-experience-for-older-learners-tickets-36369418911>

Refreshments served at 15.00 followed by

Annual AEA Frank Glendenning Memorial Lecture
(15.30 –16.45, Free admission)

"I am still learning" - Loneliness, isolation, older people and learning in the post-modern world

Professor Paul Kingston, Professor of Ageing and Mental Health, University of Chester

Book your place to the Glendenning lecture here:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/i-am-still-learning-reflections-on-reducing-loneliness-and-isolation-for-older-people-in-the-post-tickets-36369875276>

