

'Older people - careers and learning'

an event organised by

The Association for Education and Ageing (AEA)

&

The National Institute of Adult Continuing Education (NIACE)

20 May 2014

10.30am-3.00pm

Venue: NIACE, 21 De Montfort Street, Leicester, LE1 7GE

Participation is FREE for NIACE and AEA members

You are invited to attend a seminar on the theme of 'older people - careers and learning', organised by NIACE and AEA. It will explore current thinking and practice around older workers and learning - from staying in, and extending, employment in later life to new approaches to retirement. The event will include a vibrant mix of speakers, discussion and participation, and provide an opportunity for networking.

Confirmed speakers:

- Prof. Stephen McNair (NIACE Research Fellow)
'Staying in work – learning and employment in later life'
- Dr Jane Watts (NIACE Programme Manager)
'Mid-life career review – can it help extend a working life?'
- Dr Vanessa Beck (University of Leicester)
'Retirement without a retirement age'
- Prof. Peter Nolan (University of Leicester)
'Age, Work and Productivity'

NIACE and AEA members can attend free of charge

There is a fee of £20 for non-NIACE/AEA members

Includes light lunch,
tea/coffee

Booking essential

Places are limited. For a booking form or further information please contact Sasha Anderson,
Honorary Secretary, Association for Education and Ageing: sasha.anderson75@gmail.com

Closing date for bookings: 13 May 2014

www.associationforeducationandageing.org

www.niace.org.uk